

Privacy and Dignity

Who is this course aimed at?

This course is aimed at those working in residential care

Course Aims

To care for people whilst respecting privacy, promoting choice and maintaining dignity

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course you will:

- Understand what Privacy & Dignity mean in a healthcare setting
- Be aware of the importance of person-centred dignity
- Recognise the importance of maintaining dignity for someone living with dementia
- Understand the importance of a resident's personal space
- Know how to gain trust and confidence by maintaining confidentiality
- Understand your responsibilities regarding safeguarding, and when it's OK to break confidence
- Understand the factors that shape personal choices
- Be aware of the importance of mental capacity within a care setting
- Know how to help residents maintain independence and make informed choices
- Know how to conduct a risk assessment
- Understand the importance of making sure that residents are active participants in their care
- Know the key principles of self-care

Course available as

E-Learning

Course Length: 20 Mins

Contact Us

For more information, or to book any of our courses, please contact us on 01706 375578